

Spelling Bee

Students in grades 4-8 are eligible to participate at the regional level in the Western PA Spelling Bee. Students meet one day a week after school to practice the spelling lists that they have been given. At the beginning of February, an elimination round will be held to determine the school champion, who will represent MQA at the annual Western PA Spelling. The winner of that bee will receive an all-expense paid trip to the National Spelling Bee in Washington, D.C.

The club's advisor is Mrs. Kleckner. The club will meet on Friday and dismiss at 4:00 pm.

The meeting dates will be listed on our online All Events Calendar or Spelling Bee Calendar at www.mqaschool.org. Students are dismissed to Elmtree Road. If you are unable to collect your child at 4:00, your son/daughter will report to Extended Day. A fee of $10.00 will be charged for the service.
